

Red Sox vs Yankees & the Baseball Hall of Fame

Escorted by Eric & Joyce Michaels

2 Day Tour including the Baseball Hall of Fame and the Red Sox vs the Yankees in the house that Ruth built!

August 12-13, 2017

Vacation overview

Joyce and Eric Michaels invite you to marvel at the Baseball Hall of Fame, and enjoy a Boston Red Sox versus the New York Yankees game on this Baseball enthusiast's vacation. Your Cooperstown & Yankee Stadium tour starts with motorcoach pickup in S. Burlington and points south.

Travel first to Yankee Stadium to watch the Red Sox battle the New York Yankees Aug 12th at 4:05pm (Main Level Section 208). After the game depart for your hotel to overnight.

Day two, travel to Cooperstown to visit the Baseball Hall of Fame. First and foremost, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is a place to honor the game. When it was dedicated on June 12, 1939 in Cooperstown, N.Y., the Hall of Fame officially became the home of baseball by serving as its cornerstone and housing the stories honoring the greats of baseball's past. In the Museum's exhibits, you can learn about baseball history, see thousands of artifacts from the game's past, watch video, hear audio, see historic images, enjoy hands-on learning, delve deeper with computer interactive displays and test your baseball knowledge.

This vacation will entertain and educate the Baseball enthusiast and fan alike. Join the Michaels and Milne Travel on this "not to be missed" tour!
